HENDRIX LOUNGE

With elegant curved forms (and not a straight line or sharp edge in sight) the Hendrix has been carefully designed to envelop and support. Delivering a perfectly balanced blend of femininity and masculinity in its proportions, this design has a twofold aim of bolstering the occupant with sound, generous stability while also inviting time in blissful relaxation.

The performance of the Hendrix must be appreciated up close. Deep seating with an ergo filled cushioning gives this piece integrity while uniquely angled wooden legs add a touch of nostalgic charm. Its shape is thoughtful and refined, with softly curved arms and a rounded back hinting at yesteryear without compromising a single note of style.

Due to its solid, contoured form, the Hendrix looks best as a large piece – either a 3 or 3.5 seater. Its well-balanced silhouette merges well with mid-century furnishings and contemporary interior design and, with an eye-catching all-round aesthetic performance, it makes a commanding statement in an open plan room.
