

MAX LOUNGE

Good design is as much about what's left out as what's included. For the Max this balance is crucial – the understated style and clean efficiencies providing classic modernist style with a twist. If there's one thing it is, it's more than 'one thing', a hinged back cleverly engineered to extend influence and functionality. Rather than imposing itself the Max compliments the surrounding space – it's at home as much in the small apartment as it is the family living room or the concrete-floored loft space. While the wide arm is anchored with a timber slab foot keeping the profile low and solid, the narrow arm version looks sleek on a contemporary metal 'pin' foot, brushed silver or black, and provides a more compact footprint.
