ROGUE LOUNGE

Our newest design, Rogue, is a harmonious fusion of strength and softness. Inspired by iconic pieces like the Axle, Rogue carries forward the clean, confident lines of its predecessors while introducing softer contours that respond to today's evolving interior spaces.

With sumptuous ergonomic seating and feather-filled side arm cushions, Rogue invites you to relax and unwind—perfect for the end of a long day. Its solid Southland beech frame, handcrafted in our Christchurch factory, ensures enduring quality and strength. Sleek steel legs offer a subtle yet grounding design detail.

Rogue fits seamlessly within contemporary New Zealand design trends while staying true to the Kovacs ethos: to inspire, to uphold, and to endure.
